1. Zoning Ordinance Chapter 215 Update - Final Draft Review

A final draft of the new zoning ordinance and map are being presented to the Planning Commission. After another review of a presented draft at the May 14, 2026 meeting, the Planning Commission moved to schedule a special meeting to be held May 28, 2026 so that final changes and checks could be done by the consultant and that a “final draft” could be considered before they make a recommendation to the Board of Supervisors. Matt Wanamaker, with Pennoni will be joining the meeting via Teams to present the final draft. The township will be looking for the Commission to make a recommendation to move the ordinance on to the Supervisors with the proper legal steps being followed in accordance with PMPC requirements for the adoption of new zoning ordinance and map.
